

SEDGWICK COUNTY, KANSAS
COMMUNICATIONS

NEWS

CONTACT: SEDGWICK COUNTY COMMUNICATIONS 316-383-7429 FAX: 316-383-7509

June 19, 2001

Contact: Debbie Heibert
316-264-0671 Ext 100

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SECOND OUTDOOR MOVIE SERIES AT OLD COWTOWN MUSEUM

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – The 1953 production of “Shane” will be shown Thursday, June 21, as the second in the four-part “Movies Under a Western Sky” series at Old Cowtown Museum. Sponsored by KSN-TV, the movie begins at dusk and is free to everyone. Movie fans are invited to take blankets or lawn chairs to enjoy the outdoor showing on the billboard-sized screen.

Based on the book by Jack Shaefer, the classic Western starring Alan Ladd, Jack Palance and child actor Brandon de Wilde received a Best Picture Oscar nomination. The story involves a former gunfighter who comes to the aid of farmers and must eventually take on an evil hired gun.

Snacks and beverages will be available for sale. You can make an evening of it by taking advantage of the late Thursday hours, 10am-8pm (Memorial Day through Labor Day), with admission only $2 per person from 5-8pm. Hours during the rest of the week are 10am-5pm with the exception of Sundays which are 12 noon-5pm. For more information on the Museum, please call the information line at 264-6398.

- end -